Response to Potential Offerors Question

Potential offerors have raised the following question regarding the request for proposal for the Energy & Water IQC. To assure that all offerors are treated fairly, the question is answered herein so that all offerors receive the same information. The question has been paraphrased by USAID. USAID's response to the question appears in italics after the question.

1. Question: We request an extension of the proposal due date for RFP 306-11-0015 from the current February 27, 2011.

Answer: An extension of the proposal due date is not anticipated at this time. The proposal due date remains February 27, 2011. The schedule for this urgent procurement is critical to the USAID/Afghanistan mission and USAID desires to receive proposals as early as possible. This matter may be reconsidered once the question period expires.
