Responses to Potential Offerors' Questions

Potential offerors have raised the following question regarding the request for proposal for the Energy & Water IQC. To assure that all offerors are treated fairly, the question is answered herein so that all offerors receive the same information. In general questions are presented as submitted by potential offerors. However, some questions may have been edited or paraphrased by USAID. USAID's responses to the questions appear in italics after the question.

1. Question: We request an extension of the proposal due date to provide us with another week (7 days) to complete our proposal.

Answer: USAID cannot accommodate the request for an extension to the proposal due date. The schedule for this urgent procurement is critical to the USAID/Afghanistan mission and proposals must be submitted as currently required by the RFP. The proposal due date remains March 13, 2011.
